Patience

'Patience is about inner reflection, peace and calm. Her colouring is very soft, very quiet. I wanted the viewer to feel the weight of her leaning on her hands. To feel the passage of time — when everything stops — to be in the present.'

It's a reminder to take a moment to breathe.'

Journey

This figure could be an encouraging and supportive reminder to someone beginning a process, a 'journey'... perhaps moving toward greater well-being and independence; a new career or location; overcoming illness or personal loss... it's a reminder to pause and reflect on the moments — both difficult and joyful — along the path toward achieving goals.
